

Statistics: Hypothesis testing, probability distributions, basic probability theory, correlation

Mathematics: Linear algebra, multivariable calculus, optimisation

Computer Science: Basic algorithms and data structures (sorting, searching, arrays, linked lists, trees etc), basic computer architecture (understanding the memory hierarchy, roughly what CPUs do etc)

Programming: Can write a reasonably complex 500-line program that works as intended (and is also readable!)